Faculty Profile

by Mary Rose Slaughter

Dr. Authur Story Bushing, associate professor of English, is a man who has weathered many changes since he came to Maryville College as a freshman in 1939. Bushing has seen a predominantly church service oriented curriculum change to a varied liberal arts curriculum, the lack of cars to many cars, the demerit system in use, and the price of education increase.

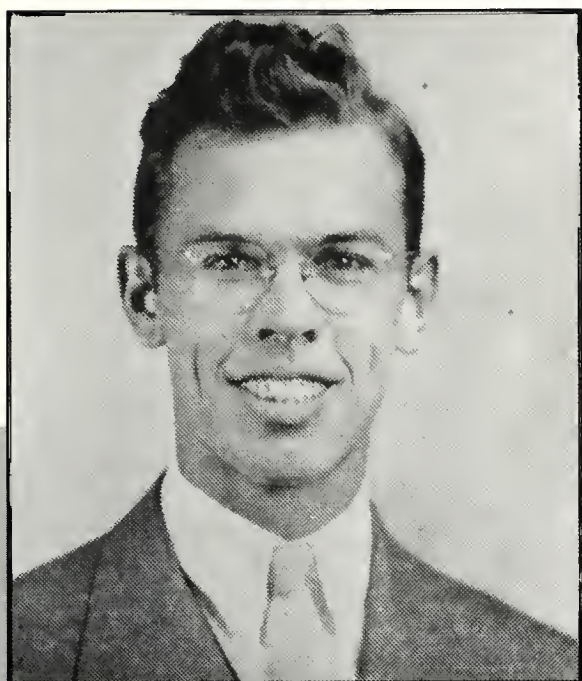

"In the 1930's and '40's, there was a large number of students that came (to MC) with the idea of going into some sort of church service," said Bushing, "I understood when I came here what kind of atmosphere it was."

In early '43, many colleges were taking in the Army Air Corp. MC was one. Bushing was asked to teach them physics. "I didn't know any better, so I did," he said, "then, Uncle Sam wanted me." Bushing served in the U.S. Army from 1943 to 1946 in the European theater.

Over the years that Bushing has taught at MC, many changes in policy has occured. As a student, he was aware of demerits for smoking, expulsion for drinking alcohol, and the rule that students were not allowed to have cars on campus. Most students were on campus while some families moved to nearby streets so their children could go to college. The price of education has gone up since Bushing was a student at MC. It cost him $500 for everything one year. That included his ticket from and to home, clothes, and other miscellaneous.

When asked what lasting impression he'd like to make on his students, he smiled and said, "The excitement of discovery of what you find out about human nature through literature."

Sports

Football

by: Michelle Simpson

The Maryville College Fighting Scots had a rough start for the season, but they pulled together and made a great comeback. They finished with a winning 7-3 season.

For most of the football team, the highlight of the season was the 14-7 win over Rhodes College. David King, a junior wide receiver on the Fighting Scots team, said, "The Rhodes game was huge."

Alex Oakes, a senior on the team, was satisfied with the season record. Oakes said, "We lost the game against Emory and Henry, but we won the fight. It was very satisfying to end a career on a good note."

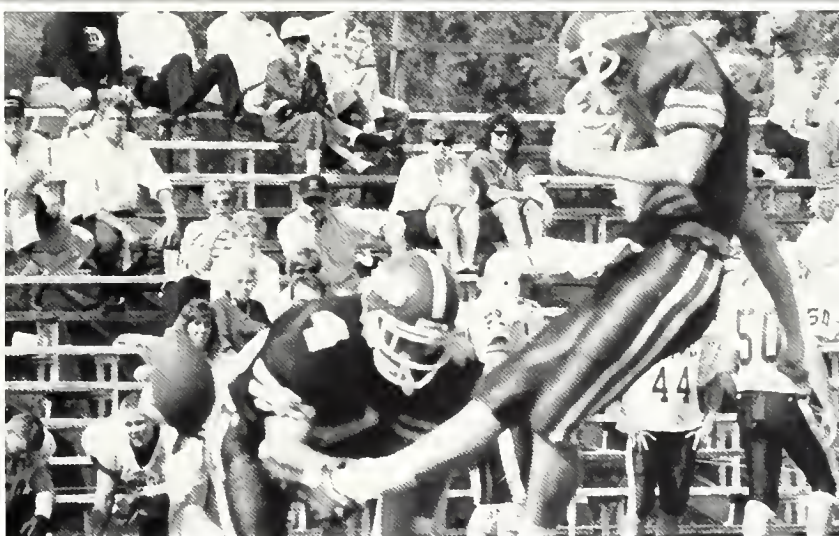

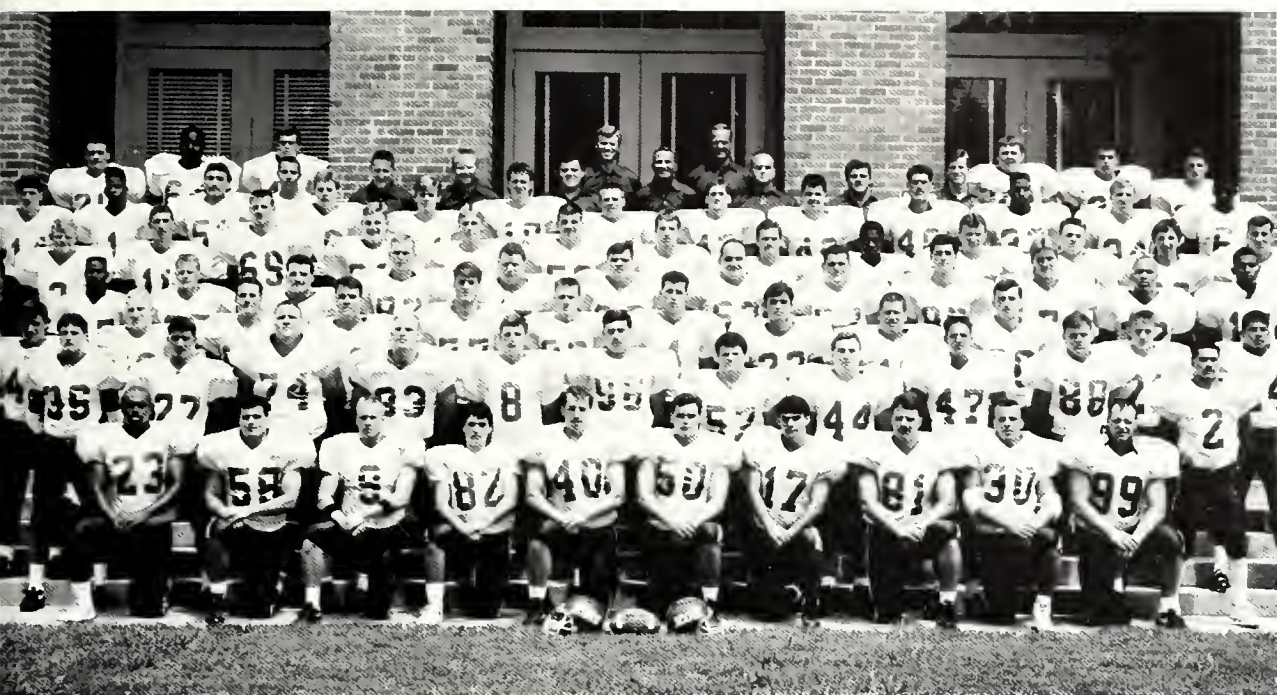

The team has come together, and the future looks bright for the young Scots. As for next year, they have a chance to go 10-0 with a very strong defense returning, and a very experienced offensive line.

Of course, the Scots will miss the leadership of the seniors that are leaving, but they are looking forward to a great, new season.

Volleyball

By: Don Evon

The 1991-92 Lady Scots Volleyball Team, led by All-South team member and All-American candidate Tonya Dewitt, brought its season to a respectable close finishing second at the Womens' Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Championship Tournament for the second year in a row. Posting a record of 23-20, the Lady Scots also finished fourth in the Maryville College Tournament and third at Greensboro.

Besides being named to four All-Tournament teams, DeWitt, along with sophomore teammate Nikki Boop, was named to the All-Conference team. DeWitt was also named Most Valuable Player for the Lady Scots during the 1991-92 season. Freshman Stephanie French was voted Most Improved, and Jenni McCafferty received the Coach's Award.

Men's Soccer

By: Martin Lin

The Maryville College soccer Scots failed in their attempt to qualify for the NCAA Division III play-offs, but were still successful in having an impressive season overall.

The men's soccer team, led by seniors Dale Allen, Patrick Hagerty, Patrick Mumpower, and captain Ben Sohrabi, finished with a 12-5-3 record for the season.

The team, playing most of their games on the road, showed poise, strength, and concentration tying the South's Division III leader Methodist College in North Carolina. The most impressive performance, however, was the 4-4 tie with the NCAA Division III Championship runner-up Trenton State from New Jersey.

Coach Pepe Fernandez said he was satisfied with the season. "I thought the team played great. The freshmen adjusted to the situation and came through."

I'll race ya!

Chris Neal tries to kick the ball out of the other player's way.

Lady's Soccer

By: Martin Lin

The Lady Scots finished with a very impressive 10-2-1 record and were ranked as the fifth best team in the south near the end of the season. Captains Kelly Smelser and Nicole Schmucker led the team to its best record in the history of Maryville College's women's soccer program.

The main reason the team failed to reach the national tournament was probably, according to Coach Pepe Fernandez, the comparatively small number of games played. However, the Maryville College Lady Scots will most definitely enter next season as top contenders in the south in both programs.

Scots

The Maryville College Scots basketball team this season established the best record in college history, 25-4. This year's achievements led to Coach Randy Lambert's being named District Coach of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches.

This year also marks the end of the basketball careers of brothers Babatu and Amirou Willingham.

Lady Scots

The Maryville College Lady Scots Basketball team finished their very successful season on March 8, with a 73-71 loss to Roanoke College in the first round of the Women's Division III NCAA Tournament.

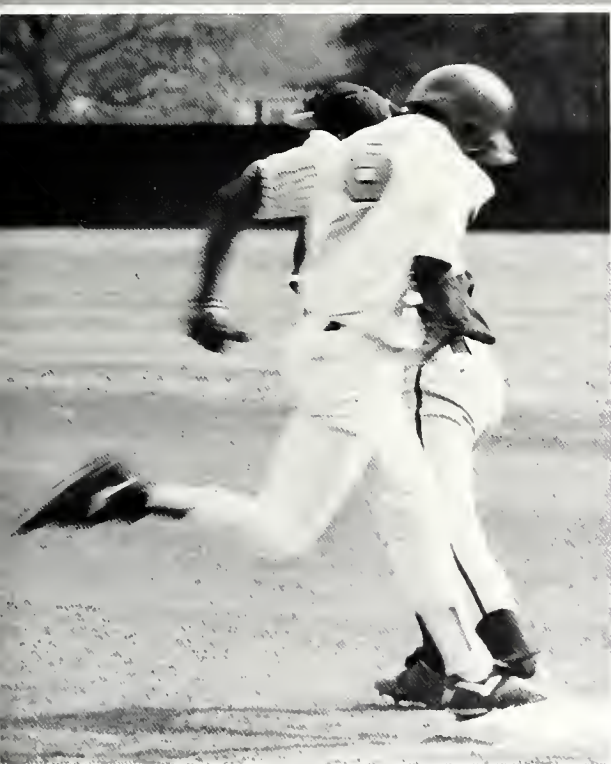

The Lady Scots were ranked fifth in the country going into the tournament, and ended the season with a 24-4 record.

Lady Scots coach Wes Moore termed the season very enjoyable, except for the departures of seniors Sherri Daigle and Lisa Locke.

Reprinted from the Highland Echo.

Scots

With a doubleheader sweep of Savannah College of Art and Design, the Maryville baseball team brought the 1992 season to a record-breaking close.

The Scots' second victory over SCAD also marked their 24th win of the season, thus setting a new school record.

Other records broken this year included most stolen bases in a season, by John Roszell; most hits in a season, by Clint Boling; and most career wins, by Bobby Pringle.

"We were shooting for the record and we got it," head coach Brian Wajert said. "They built the program to where we are respected in the Region now. It's been great."

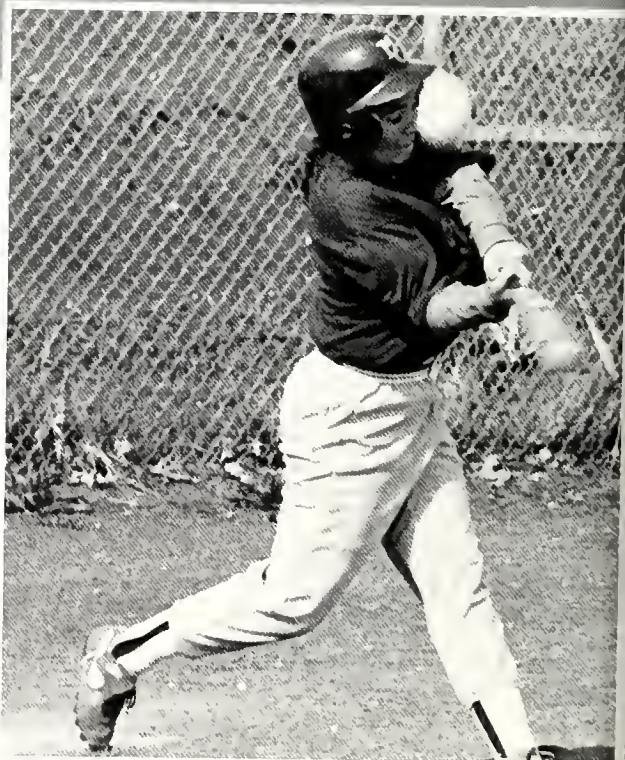

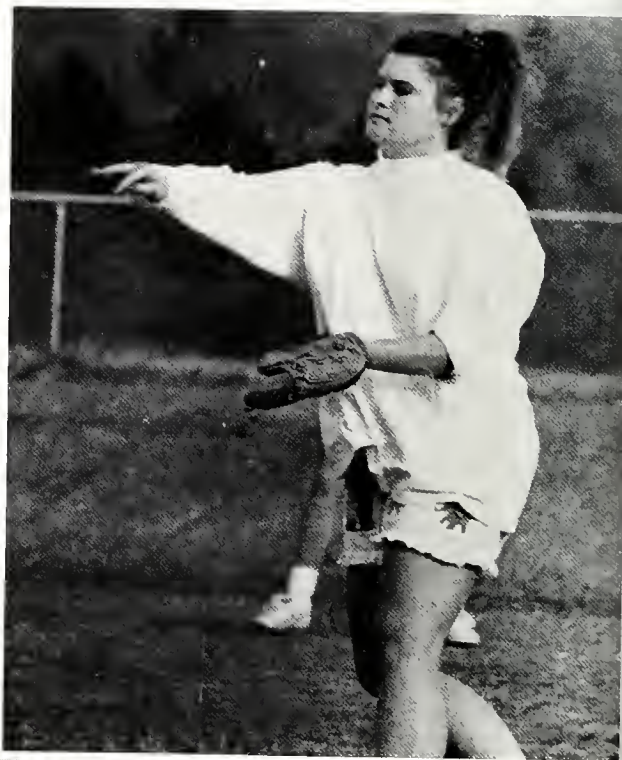

Lady Scots

by Don Evon

Although Shannon McCurry went 6-for-9 with two home runs and four runs batted in, the Lady Scots softball team fell to 4-15 back on April 18 as they dropped two games to Tusculum in Greenville.

On Saturday, April 25, the team finally brought its season to a disappointing 4-17 on the year.

Cheerleaders and Trainers

Organizations

Church and College Scholars

is a group of students who are members of a Presbyterian Church. Students are provided with $2,000 per year in scholarship money and are required to perform at best three hours per week in community service. Although the students can design their own service programs, many of the scholars are involved in puppetry and clowning.

Presbyterian Student Fellowship

Presbyterian Student Fellowship is composed of Presbyterian students at Maryville College who simply have a desire to congregate for fun, food, and reflection. The new college chaplain, Rev. Stephen Nickle, heads this group of students.

Puppet Ministry

is a team that stems from the Church and College Scholars. The students use this as a service project within the community churches and local nursing homes. Led by Rick Tatum, the group meets once a week to practice. This year the ministry was extended to involve a three week Interim trip sharing a puppet program with children of all ages throughout the Southeast.

Clowning Group

is one of the many ways to become involved in the Maryville College community. This group was begun only a few years ago and ministers to local churches for children of all ages. Under the leadership of Rick Tatum, the group shares the gospel of Jesus Christ through Bible studies and magic. What a delightful ministry to share the gospel.

Heather Peterson, Julie Lipe, Rick Tatum, Lara Sibold, Chris Koopman, Christi Ferguson, Sara Goelz

Fellowship of Christian Athletes

Fellowship of Christian Athletes is an organization that strives "to present to athletes and coaches, and all whom they influence, the challenge and adventure of receiving Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord, serving Him in their relationships and in the fellowship of the church." FCA meets weekly, with special events planned during the year.

Jamie Harison, Ginger Chapman, David King, Curtis Stapleton, Wayne Norman, Kye Chung, Lynn Frye, Bill McClellan, Carrie Calloway, Lea Fersner, Jon Chambers, Jody Cummings, Eric Booth, Steve Huskins, Kim Carter, Rachel Winter, Beth Hucke, Amy Lee, Stephanie French, Jenny Cummings, Sandra Brown, Sherry McMahon, Christina Holmes, Amy Fenner, Jennifer Sloan, Mark Houston, Stacey Keith, Tara Fishbach, Justin Phillips, Stephanie Fugate, Mike Wilson, Heather Griffis, Carrie Hooper, Kate Darrah, Mary Steiger, Lara Scott, Amy Crowe, Doug Leeman, Richard Bower, Joe McCay, Doug Hoff

Baptist Student Union

Baptist Student Union is an organization supported by the Southern Baptist Association that works to provide all students with opportunities for Christian fellowship.

Sandra Brown, Cindy Huffstetler, Heather Peterson, Lee Ann Bieber, Elias Smith, Lisa Branam, Marsha Butler, Marjie Dietz, and Richard Bauer.

InterVarsity Christian Fellowship

is an interdenominational student ministry. Its goal is to promote evangelism, nurture, worship, and missions. This is a group of students who are committed to seeking God's view on social issues and concerns, and taking appropriate responsive action. This year the Intersivity students met weekly for prayer and Bible study, attended Intersivity conferences, and did community service work.

Bible Studies

Bible Study groups were carried over from last year by Christians who felt they needed the studies for their spiritual growth. Three different groups met weekly: A co-ed group led by Laura Field and Jamie Harrison, a women's group led by Cassie Burns, and an International group led by Kevin Cauley. The members of these groups are committed to intensifying their knowledge of God's word and maintaining their spiritual growth.

Worship Planning Committee

The Worship Planning Committee is a group of people from various facets of campus life who meet to plan the regular Tuesday worship services. Tuesday worship is a time for faculty and students to pause for 30 minutes from their busy schedules to worship God. Without the committee, Tuesday worships would be non-existent. Suggestions and input from everyone is welcome.

Drama Ministry

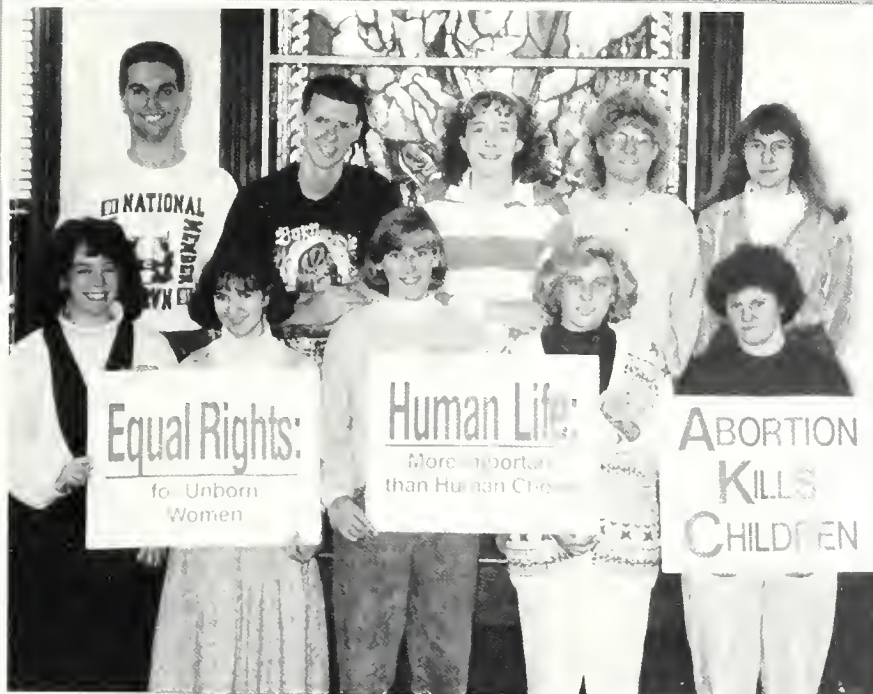

is a new group here at Maryville College this year. Directed by Jill Bergeron the group consists of students interested in theatrical representations of the gospel. The Drama Ministry was created in order to enhance Community Worship at Maryville College. Anyone interested in such a ministry is welcomed to get involved.

Maryville College Voices of Praise is a brand new choral group at Maryville College this year. Directed by Larry Ervin, the group performs at different functions within the Maryville College Community. The choir sings gospel music that reaches the hearts of all who listen. Singing praises to the Lord Jesus Christ and sharing those praises with audiences is the purpose of this fabulous group of dedicated singers.

Tennessee Students for Life

is a statewide organization that is part of a nationwide campaign that strives to make a difference in the amount of abortions each day. This is an organization that fights for the rights of unborn children. The Maryville College chapter was started last year by students who felt it was important to better educate the MC community of the facts about abortion and child development.

International Club

The International Club is an organization of international students and American students which provides opportunities for mutual understanding. This club is a group of people banded together from all parts of the world in hopes of gaining a better understanding of each others' culture and customs. By sharing information about themselves and their countries, these individuals help make the world a smaller place.

Student Life

MC Band

The MC Jazz Band was led this year by new music professor, Dr. Larry Smythee. The band is composed of twelve students and open to anyone with an interest in jamming. This year, the band played for the Homecoming football game, gave an informal concert over lunch, and plan to open for Big Band great, Woody Herman.

Lend Me a Tenor

The 1991-92 Maryville College Theatre got a great start with its fall production of the Tony Award-winning comedy, Lend Me a Tenor.

The play was director Jill Bergeron's first here at MC, and featured many newcomers to the MC stage. The overwhelming success of the show and performers promises a bright future for the theatre department.

The play opens with Henry Saunders, played by sophomore Sam Waycaster, and his assistant, Max, played by freshman Darrien Thomson, awaiting the arrival of the world-famous tenor Tito Merelli, played by Robbie Patton.

Tito finally arrives suffering from stomach pain and marital problems. He argues with his wife, played by freshman Laura Scott, and takes sleeping pills to relax. Max slips more into his drink.

When Max tries to awaken Tito, he falsely determines that Tito is dead. Saunders sends Max to sing the opera in Tito's place. Meanwhile, Tito wakes up and rushes off to the opera setting the stage for scenes filled with mistaken identity and slapstick humor.

Picnic

On March 5, 6, and 7, the Maryville College Theatre presented its spring production of Picnic by William Inge. The rehearsal period for the play was a short five weeks in which Dr. Jill Bergeron, director; Alan Reihl, technical director; cast and crew all had to work especially hard. All of their efforts paid off, and the play opened to an audience of about 200 people per night.

Picnic is a play about the people who live in a small

Kansas town. Some of the characters long for the day when they can get on a bus and go to New York City, while others have resigned themselves to a life of missed opportunities. Flo Owens, played by Charlotte Borderieux, tries to keep her daughters from making mistakes she made as a young woman, but her attempts are foiled when Hal Carter comes to town. As Flo's neighbor, Mrs. Potts tells Flo she has to let them learn it for themselves.

Hal confesses his true feelings to Madge, played by Julie Williams.

Alan, played by Darrien Thompson, listens as Hal, played by Mike Wilson, tells him about the wild times he's had since college.

Below: Everyone gathers around Irma Krondike, played by Heather Conway, to hear about her trip to the Stork Club in NYC.
Bottom: Despite the pressures of stage managing, Sam Waycaster remains calm and smiling.

Homecoming '91

The weekend of October 25-27 was bustling with activity as MC's Homecoming festivities were held.

All of the athletic teams excelled in their Homecoming games. The MC football team won against Cumberland University 38-6. The women's soccer team beat Georgia Wesleyan College while the men's soccer team won over the University of Tennessee. They volleyball team was also successful in their victory over Knoxville College.

Other activities included the Harvest Crafts Fair, the library's Back Door Book Sale, the traditional barbecue lunch, and a talent revue.

The Homecoming Dance at Ruby Anne's ended a great Homecoming weekend.

Dorm Staff

The resident hall staff consists of resident directors, resident assistants, and student assistants. Each dorm has its own unique staff which works to enhance residential living here at Maryville College. Supervised by the Residential Directors, the staff sets the tone for residential living through example, programming, and caring confrontation.

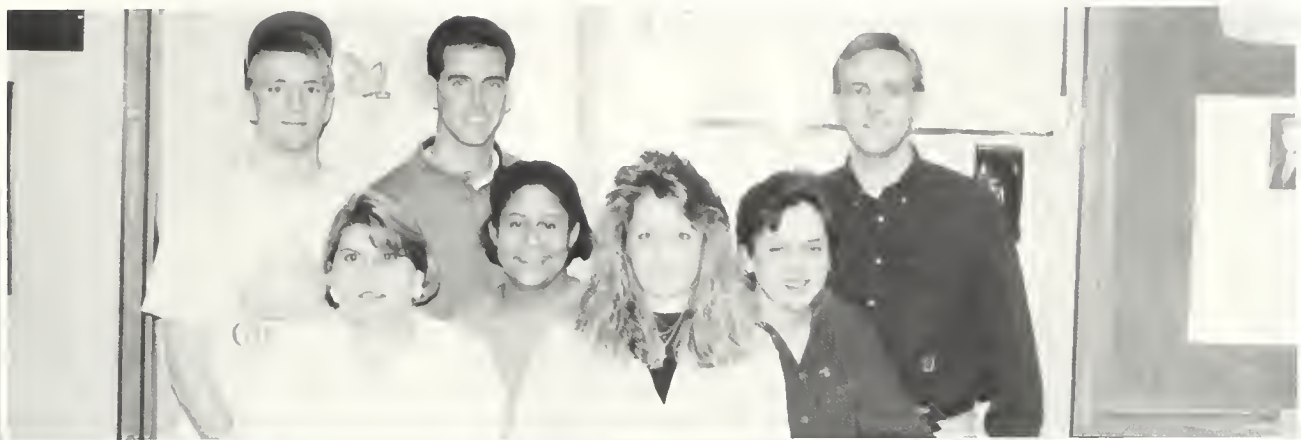

Staff members are expected to fulfill responsibilities such as peer counseling and advising, activity programming, administrative duties, encouraging positive student conduct, and participating in staff education programs.

Thanks to the hardworking staffs of 1991-92, dorm life is running smoothly!

Gamble Staff: Seoval Blevins, Mrs. Hurst, Larry Irvin, Akihito Ishiwatari, and Greg Marmon.

INTERIM

Interim was designed to give students three weeks to explore less traditional areas of study more intensely than during the semester. (It also makes a nice break between Christmas and the start of real classes!)

Activities range from Dr. Bloy's traditional crash course in piano playing, to a student-run model United Nations for high schoolers. (Otherwise known as those few days when you can't get near Pearson's to eat.)

Mardi Gras and Spring Fling

DRAMA

This year was the first year at MC for Alpha Psi Omega, the drama honor fraternity. Nine members were inducted into the fraternity this spring.

Alpha Psi Omega hosted its first all student mainstage production, 27 Wagons Full of Cotton by Tennessee Williams. Students planned the show from direction to lights.

Alpha Psi members feel very positive about the new fraternity. There are plans next year to do a full-length play in February, giving more theatre experience opportunities to the campus community.

Allons! we must not stop here,
However sweet these laid-up stores,
However convenient this dwelling
We cannot remain here,
However shelter'd this port and
However calm these waters
We must not anchor here,
However welcome the hospitality that surrounds us
We are permitted to receive it but a little while.

Walt Whitman, "Song of the Open Road"

I would like to thank Dr. Leonard Butts for being my academic and yearbook advisor; Sandra Brown for being a hardworking and organized assistant editor; and my husband, Kipp, for all his support.

All of us, whether we are graduating seniors or underclassman, should have faith in ourselves and in our ability to meet our goals. To the senior class of '92, I would like to say, "Good luck," and:

Follow Your Dreams
